The Baltic Sea is one of the most polluted seas in the world. The greatest environmental problem it faces is eutrophication caused by excessive nutrient loads. As they are today, the protective measures of the countries surrounding the Baltic Sea are not sufficient for removing the problems the Baltic Sea faces. The Moomins and the John Nurminen Foundation will start a one-year fund raising campaign to save the Baltic Sea and its vibrant culture. Help the Moomins and the John Nurminen Foundation to clean #OURSEA.

Campaign products are marked using the campaign mark to show that they belong to the campaign and that a part of their price will go towards the campaign.
